SAINT ANNA'S HOME
FOR AGED WOMEN

2016 RACE STREET • PHILADELPHIA 3

The Chapel

IN 1913 the All Saints' Sisters of the Poor opened a home for elderly Episcopal women at 2016 Race Street.

Through the years, in this small home, each woman has her own room, well cooked meals and the love and concern of the Sisters who are in charge of St. Anna's Home.

Daily services are held in the little chapel on the top floor. Two sun porches are used for sewing, reading and visiting. Tea is served every afternoon in the first floor living room.

There is a minimum charge of $85.00 a month for room and board, but as this does not cover the cost of operation, the difference must be made up by the Associates and friends of St. Anna's Home.

May we count on a contribution from you to help continue this work?

THE ALL SAINTS' SISTERS OF THE POOR

THIS Order for Religious was started by the Church of England in 1851 where it rapidly increased. Its good works are manifold, in England and America. Labours are largely confined to Homes, Hospitals and Orphanages. In America the Main Convent is in Baltimore. Saint Anna's Home in Philadelphia is the work of the Sisters there and is an inspiration to many.
